

Master of Science in Communications and Information Management

Plan for Students Starting in the Fall 2010 – 2 Year Program

NOTE: There are 8 required core courses and 4 electives to complete for a total of 12 courses.
Students must take at least 2 MSCIM electives. Two electives may be taken from other disciplines.
Courses are offered 1 evening a week from 6 – 10 pm or online except as noted.

FALL SEMESTER: October 18, 2010 – December 11, 2010

A. CIM 603 Professional Communications Strategies

FALL SEMESTER: January 3 – February 26, 2011

A. CIM 610 Business Information Strategy in a Global Environment

SPRING SEMESTER: February 28 – April 23, 2011

A. CIM 601 Theories of Communications

SPRING SEMESTER: May 2 – June 25, 2011

A. CIM 607 Applied Research Strategies

SUMMER SEMESTER: June 27 – August 20, 2011

A. ELECTIVE

SUMMER SEMESTER: August 22 – October 15, 2011

A. ELECTIVE

FALL SEMESTER: October 24 – December 17, 2011

A. CIM 605 Business Intelligence

FALL SEMESTER: January 2 – February 25, 2012

A. ELECTIVE

SPRING SEMESTER: February 27 – April 21, 2012

A. CIM 634 Strategies for Fiscal Management

SPRING SEMESTER: April 30 – June 23, 2012

A. CIM 640 Strategic Innovation

SUMMER SEMESTER: June 25 – August 18, 2012

A. ELECTIVE

SUMMER SEMESTER: August 20 – October 13, 2012

A. CIM 670 Case Analysis Capstone

Typical Elective Course Options:

CIM 612 Information Design & Usability Testing

CIM 642 Project Management

CIM 656 Strategies for Network Security

CIM 655 Advanced Graphic Design & Visual Communications

CIM 621 Designing Effective Websites

CIM 654 Knowledge Management

CIM 658 Strategies for Information Management

Note: All courses, including on-ground classes, will utilize online learning tools such as the Angel classroom.